Meet Shelly Harrison!

You may remember her from last year. She won the NSBW category with this same crew of lunch ladies. The faculty and staff at her school love her so much that she became the Employee of the Year for her school and went on to represent her school and won for the Nassau County School District Employee of the Year! One awesome thing this year is that she competed against 2 other Food & Nutrition Service Managers in our district that were selected to represent their school as well.

Here are the CES Lunch Ladies!
These CES Lunch Ladies are involved in just about everything! From their cafeteria, and their school, to their community.

They are also involved in the Florida School Nutrition Association and are planning some amazing things for the students, schools and community! Shelly, their manager, is our new FNSA President!

The CES Lunch Ladies are always going above and beyond. This time, they are bringing music to the students of Callahan Elementary School during National School Lunch Week!

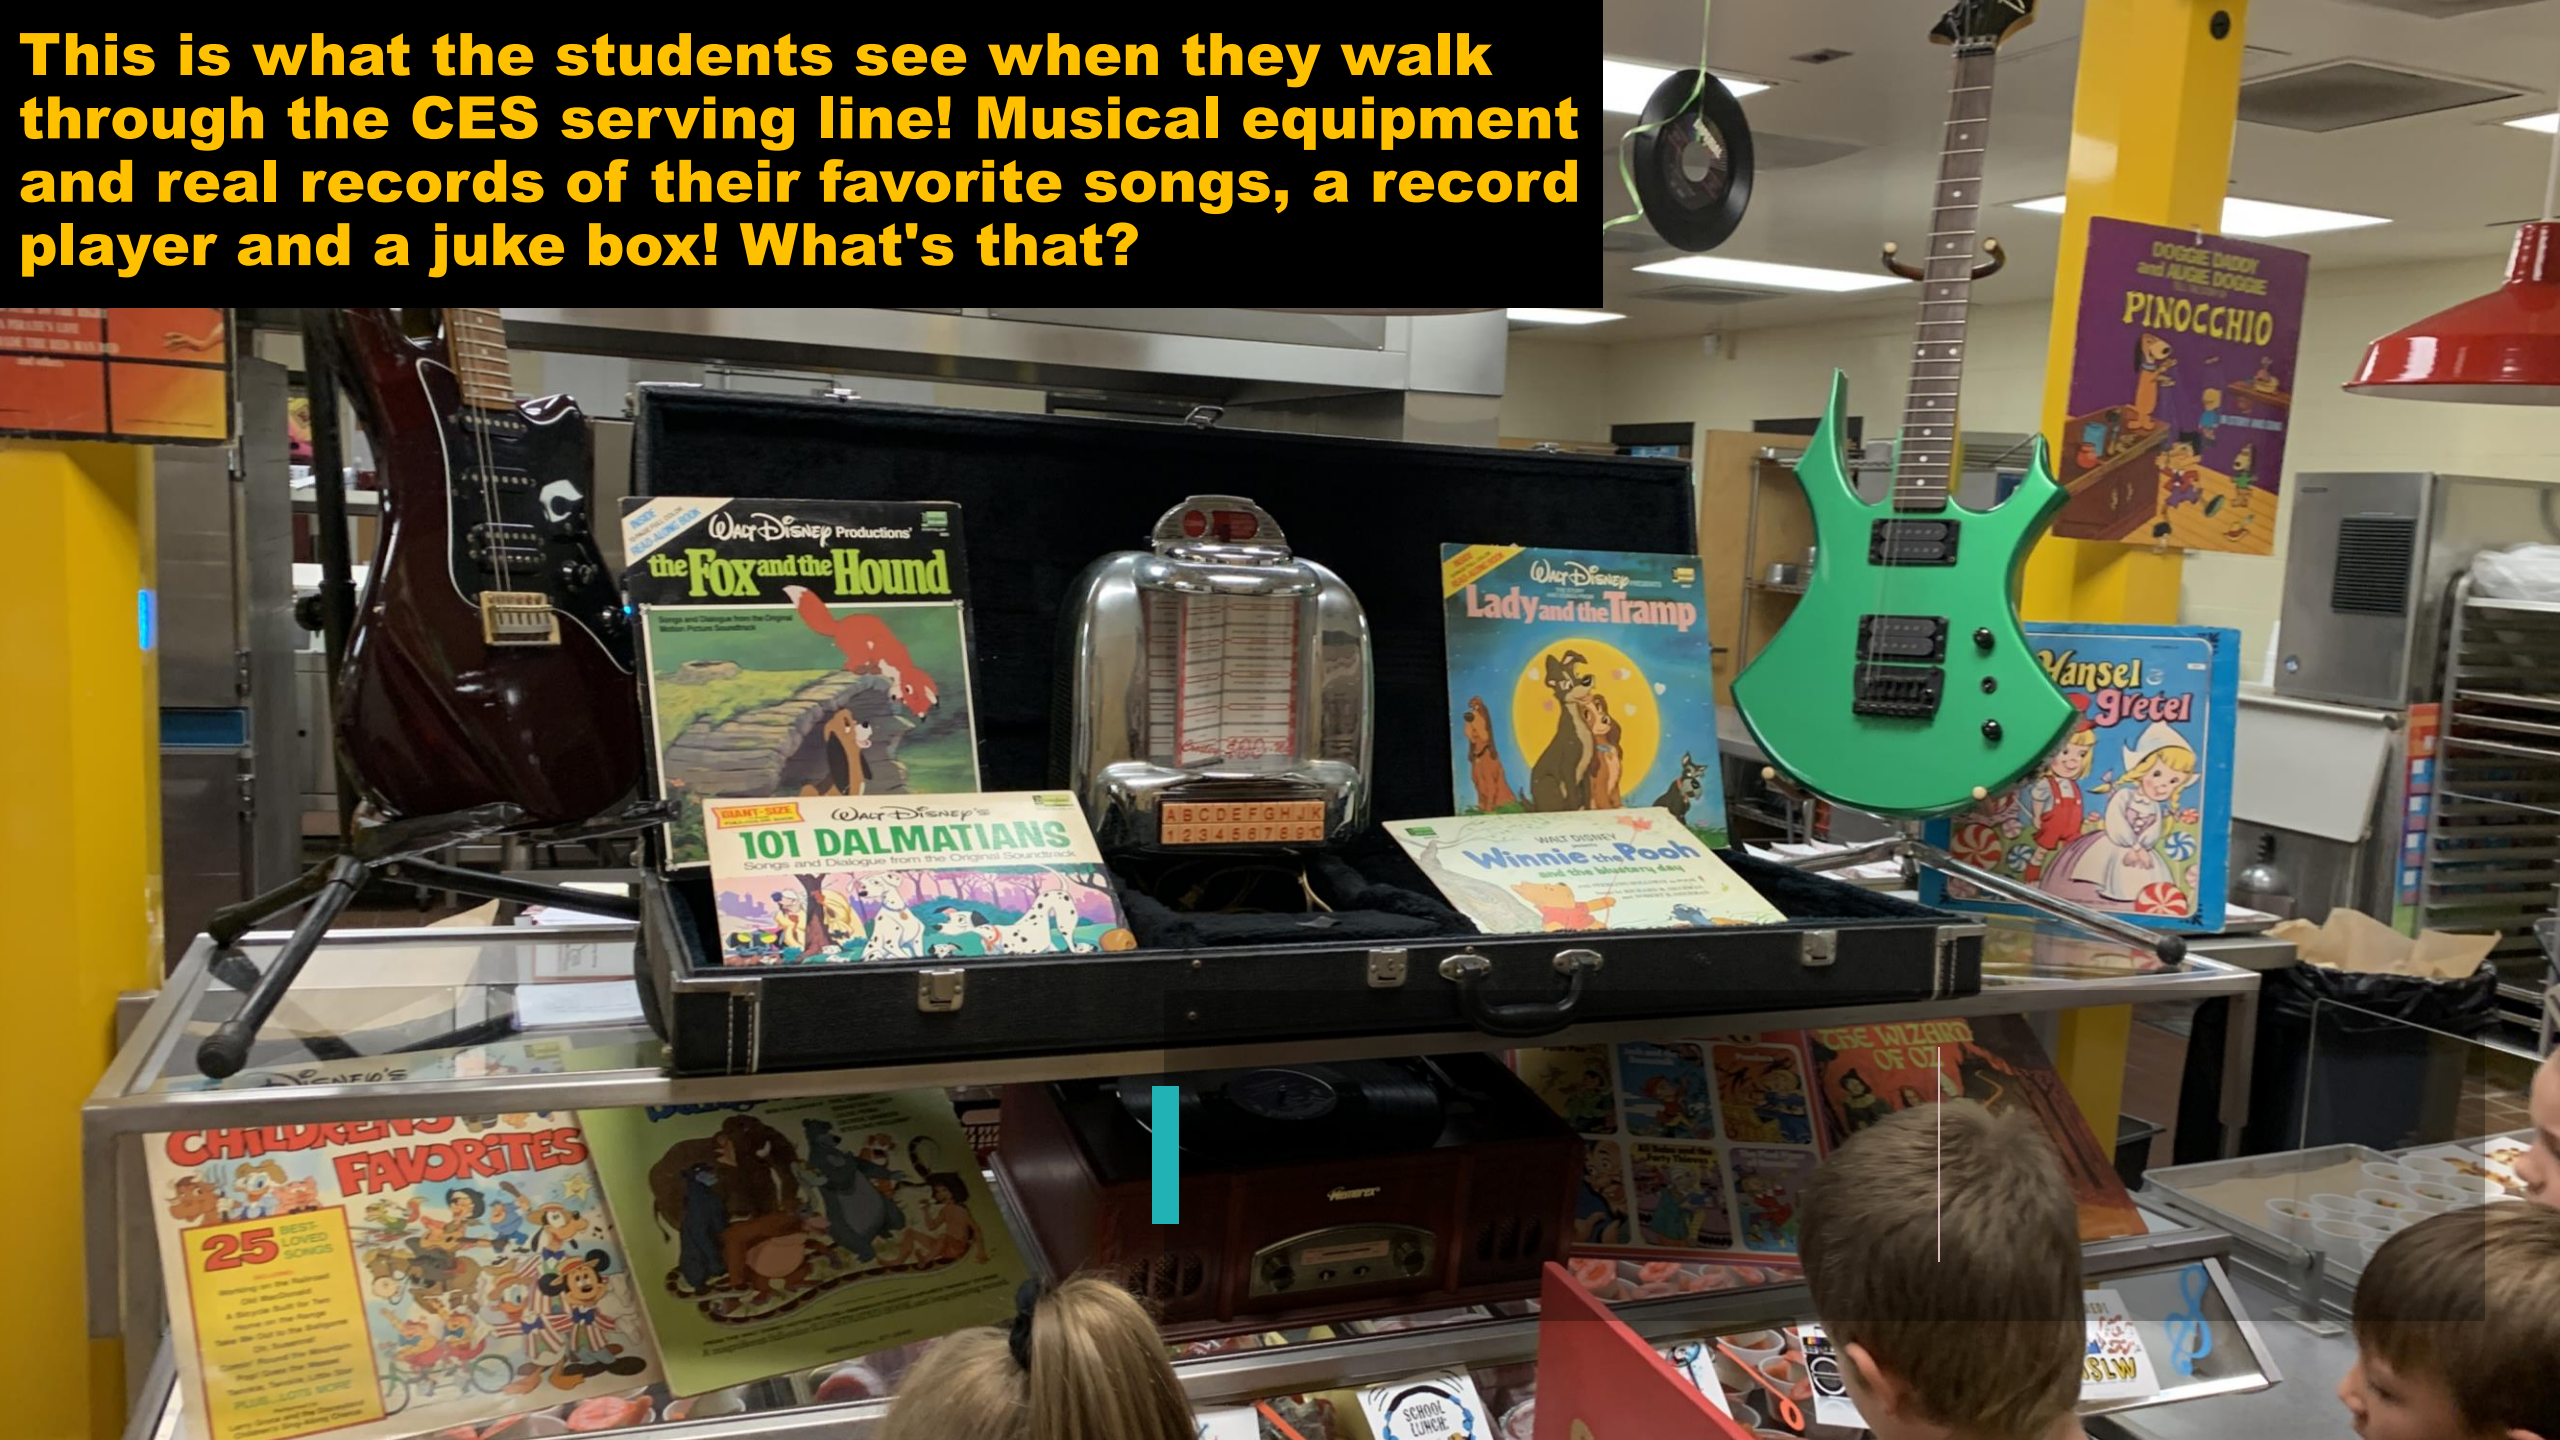
National School Lunch Week

CES Serving Line

See the world through the eyes of a child.



This is what the students see when they walk through the CES serving line! Musical equipment and real records of their favorite songs, a record player and a juke box! What's that?
Walt Disney Productions
the Fox and the Hound
101 DALMATIANS
Songs and Dialogue from the Original Soundtrack
Walt Disney
Lady and the Tramp
Winnie the Pooh
PINOCCHIO
Hansel & Gretel
CHILDREN'S FAVORITES
25 BEST-LOVED SONGS

A LIVE SHOW!

Every day going to lunch at CES is like walking into a live show!

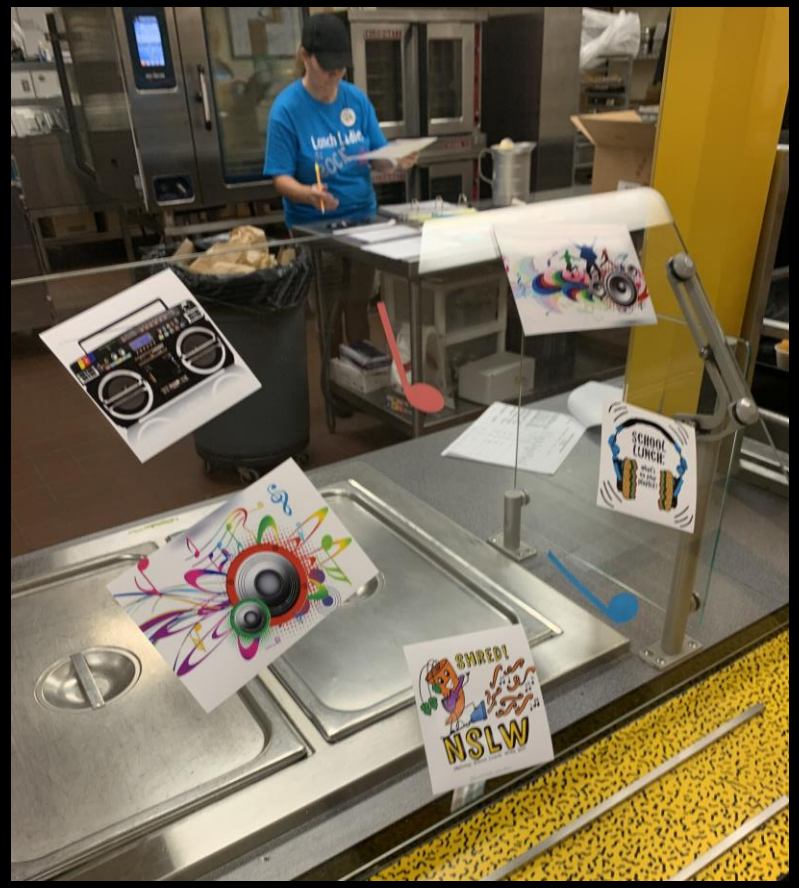
The students always have something fun to see, look at and learn. Even when it's not NSLW, there are themed decorations for the students to enjoy! This team of lunch ladies go above and beyond to put Nutrition Education on display and promote our mission!

They really give them something to talk about, don't they?

...but in a cafeteria, it's not just about the décor, its about the Food! Lets see what they have in store for these kids!

Musical Food Labels

The food items of the week had fun labels that kept the students entertained and reading as they walked through the line! This is a great way to incorporate literacy in the cafeteria.



Live Music!

These students came to entertain their younger CES fans while the Pre-K-2nd graders ate their lunch! Shelly set this up with the band director in advance.

Both the band members and the students listening were so excited! This includes students from the West Nassau High School Callahan Middle School!

Lunch Time Music – Callahan Elementary 10/18/19 Welcome, MUSIC intro –talk about who loves music and how it can make someone feel.
–Lead into the guess your instruments and however we are lined up give a little explanation and an example of how they sound. (explain what kind: brass instruments, stringed, etc.) –Talk about vocals being an instrument and maybe chorus/choir –Talk about Band and what you do and also marching band.
Let's start with a Happy Song, sing along with us if you know "You Are My Sunshine"
Go into Chicken Fry with the Banjolele and guitars. (SWEET TEA on a Friday night) Mandolin, explain there are different ways to use string instruments, strum or finger pick or even just making a beat with it by strum slaps or just hitting it.
Talk about how there are songs that can inspire and make you feel better. "Head Up" Andy Grammar Open it up for a song request or just pick a song to end with.
Repeat until 12:30pm as they cycle out.

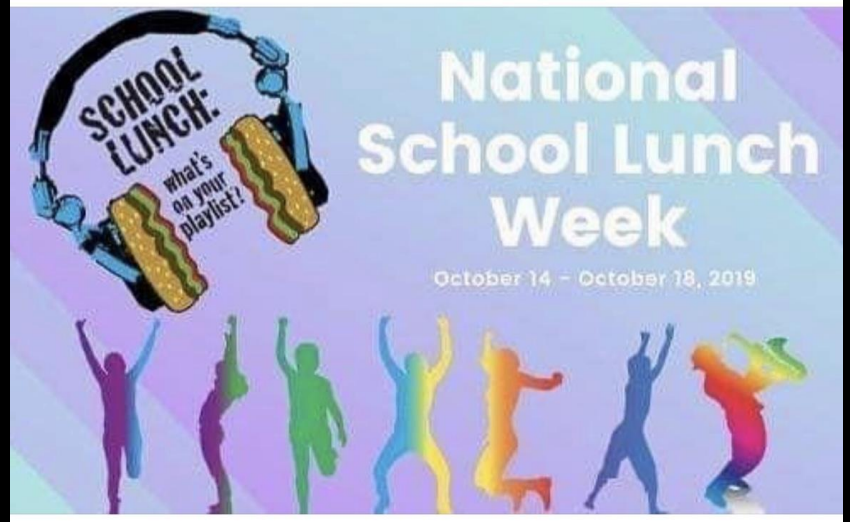
CES NEWS

- The Callahan Elementary School News promoted National School Lunch Week. The lunch ladies created fun props to share with the students. As you can see the students were amazed! The lunch ladies make a regular appearance on the school news. They were also spotlighted on social media.

School Involvement:

Not only do our lunch ladies support the school both children and staff… but the school also supports them! It takes a village to feed, nurture and educate the children.

Here is a special message from your favorite lunch ladies:
It's been fun celebrating National School Lunch Week
The "What's In Your Playlist " theme finishes out tomorrow.
Any student that eats lunch from the cafeteria will be entered in a drawing for some great prizes.. if that student or Staff wear a music related shirt (Concert, Band, Band Parent, Mtv, school Play shirts, or any shirt with an instrument) and buy Lunch .. they will have 2 entries!!
So Don't forget those shirts !!
#NSLW2019



The PTO got excited about National School Lunch Week and advertised for the students, faculty and staff to wear a shirt with their favorite band, or musical instrument, or school musical! They put the students names in a drawing an extra time. Shelly created a gift basket for the a drawing for the teachers to win. Her team also does a special teacher's bar for her faculty and staff featuring homemade soups, grilled cheese bars, and a beautiful fresh salad bar with Fresh from Florida produce. You feel like like a winner just by walking in an having lunch!
